

MINUTES
General Assembly Meeting

Thursday, March 2, 2023
4:00-5:00 pm
Room: NSCI 101
Recording

Agenda Overview

Welcome Message from our President

Graduate Council update: Started talking about the Bill of Rights and Responsibilities for approval with University

Policy updates: Dean Bell proposed getting rid of +/- grading system

Committee Reports

Programming: planning GSAW events which will occur during the first week of April; it will be Monday-Thursday as the University is closed that Friday; more information to come

Student Engagement: The Bill of Rights has moved to the next steps for review with other University committees

Finance: funding window opens on March 13 and closes on March 24; first come, first serve; application completion; priority given to those who did not receive funding last semester

Meet the Executive Board Nominees

President

Alexander Grindstaff: PhD student in JSNN; has been active with the GSA throughout his academic career

Vice President

Terry Chavis: PhD student in TEHE; has been active with the GSA and currently serves on the Graduate Council

Justin Fegley: PhD candidate in Kinesiology; has served as a GSA senator for his department

Treasurer

Heather Emmons: PhD student in Nutrition Department; has been active with the GSA and served on the finance committee

Brooks Youngmark: PhD student in PHE; has been active with the GSA as a senator

Student Relations Chair

Ashley Loper-Nowak: PhD candidate in History; has been active with the GSA throughout her academic career

Read the full bio and purpose statement of each candidate here.

Voting opened at 6:00 pm on March 2 and closes on March 16.

Guest Speakers: Dan Bayer and Emilee Robbins to discuss upcoming student forum

Forum is scheduled for March 13. More information in attached flyer

Meeting Adjourned